

TARYN COMMONWEALTH

RICHMOND, VA

S. C. 210
8-16-10. 1. 2.

Electoral College of 1913.
Elected Nov. 1912

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the State at Large.....
.....
according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

.....Norment Powell.....

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

.....
.....
This is to certify that.J. Norment Powell....., on this13th.....day of.....January....., Anno Domini, 1913., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of.....
.....Elector of President and Vice President for the state at large.....
.....

.....Norment Powell.....
.....B. C. James.....
.....Secretary of the Commonwealth.....

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President.

... And Vice President for the State at Large.....

according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

Abundant,

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office; so help me God.

Sturmdurk, J.

This is to certify that. R.T.W.Duke, Jr......, on this 13th ... day of..... January, Anno Domini, 1913..., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of.....

.....Elector of President and Vice president for the State at Large.....

B. O. Jones
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the Ninth Congressional District according to the best of my ability; so help me God.

J. P. McConnell

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office; so help me God.

J. P. McConnell

This is to certify that. J. P. McConnell, on this 13th day of January, Anno Domini, 1913.., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of..... Elector of President and Vice President for the Ninth Congressional District

B. C. James
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President from Third Congressional District
 according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

.....Hill Montague.....

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

.....Hill Montague.....

This is to certify that. Hill Montague....., on this 13th day
 of.....January....., Anno Domini, 191*3*., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of.....

.....Elector of President and Vice President..... from Third Congressional District.....

.....B. O. James.....
 Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me asElector of President and Vice President for the Tenth Congressional District
 according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

.F. W. King

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

.F. W. King

This is to certify that*F. W. King*, on this*13th*day of*January*, Anno Domini, 191*3*, took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of Elector of President and Vice President for the Tenth Congressional District

.B. O. James
 Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President ... and Vice President for the Fifth Congressional District
.....
according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

..... J. T. Clement X

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

..... J. T. Clement X

This is to certify that. J. T. Clement, on this 13th day of January, Anno Domini, 1913.., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of ..... Elector of President and Vice President for the Fifth Congressional ..... District.....

..... B. C. James
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as ...Elector of President and Vice President for the Second Congressional District
.....
according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

Norman R. Hamilton

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

Norman R. Hamilton

This is to certify that. Norman R. Hamilton, on this ...13th....day of.....January, Anno Domini, 191*3*..., took and subscribed the
oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of.....
Elector of President and Vice President for the Second Congressional
.....
District.....

B. C. Jones
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as . . .Elector of President . . . and Vice President for the . . .Sixth Congressional District according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

Alexander Black

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

Alexander Black

This is to certify that . . .Alexander Black, on this13th .day ofJanuary, Anno Domini, 1913 . . ., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of
.Elector of President and Vice President for the Sixth Congressional
.District

B. C. Smith
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the Eighth Congressional District

according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

Jno W. Williams

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

Jno W. Williams

This is to certify that Jno.W.Williams, on this 13th day
of January, Anno Domini, 1913, took and subscribed the
oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of Elector of President and Vice President for the Eighth Congressional District

B. C. James
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the Seventh Congressional District
.....
according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

..... Aubrey G. Weaver

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

..... Aubrey G. Weaver

This is to certify that. ... Aubrey G. Weaver, on this ... 13th ... day of ... January, Anno Domini, 1913..., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of
..... Elector of President and Vice President for the Eighth Congress-
..... sional District

..... B. O. James

Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the Fourth Congressional District

according to the best of my ability ; so help me God.

J. Gordon Bohannon

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel ; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office ; so help me God.

J. Gordon Bohannon

This is to certify that. J. Gordon Bohannon, on this 13th. ... day of January, Anno Domini, 1913..., took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of..... Elector of President and Vice President for the Fourth Congressional District

B. O. James
Secretary of the Commonwealth

OATH.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Virginia, ordained by the Convention, which assembled in the city of Richmond on the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and one, and that I will faithfully and partially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as Elector of President and Vice President for the First Congressional District, according to the best of my ability; so help me God.

R. L. Beale

I swear that I have not, while a citizen of this State, since the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and two, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, or sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly conveyed such challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting such duel; and that I will not fight a duel with a deadly weapon, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or knowingly convey such challenge, or aid or assist in any manner in fighting such duel, during my continuance in office; so help me God.

R. L. Beale

This is to certify that R. L. Beale, on this 13th day of January, Anno Domini, 1913, took and subscribed the oaths required by the laws of the State of Virginia to qualify him to discharge the duties of Elector of President and Vice President for the First Congressional District.

B. O. James
Secretary of the Commonwealth