

The Trial of Ned, the property of William Young.

Ben, the property of Thomas H. Prosser Deposes. That the prisoner was one of the conspirators. That he was a Soldier under Ben. Woolfolk, he contributed six pence for the purpose of purchasing liquor to be treated with by Ben Woolfolk in order to enlist men to fight the white people.

The trial of Isaac the property of James Allen.

Prossers Ben Deposes. That the prisoner came to the shop, and asked Solomon, if he had but the Scythe Blades to fight with, and at what time it would be that the Insurrection would commence, that if it was not soon he would go off, as he was determined not to serve a white man another year. Solomon asked the prisoner if he had a Scythe Blade, who replied he had not, and that Solomon must find one for him, which he promised to do, and Solomon shewed the prisoner the handles which he had for the swords.

The trial of Laddis the property of John Williamson.

Prossers Ben Deposes. That he overtook the prisoner near Mr. Vannick, Gabriel who was then entusting a Negro, proposed that this Deponent should endeavour to enlist the prisoner for him, in consequence of which he made proposals to the prisoner to join, which he agreed to. That afterwards Gabriel asked the prisoner to enlist with him to fight the white people, to which he readily consented, this was previous to the meeting at Mr. Young's Spring. Gabriel was to supply him with Arms, The prisoner asked the witness where they were to get ammunition, who referred him to Gabriel.

Mr. Prices John Deposes. That he saw the prisoner at Mr. Young's Spring. The prisoner agreed to join Gabriel to fight the white people, Gabriel proposed that all who would join him to stand up - and those who would not to set down - The prisoner was amongst the standers. He said he would join Gabriel and stand by him til the last, and appointed a day for meeting to consult further upon the business.

The trial of Ben alias Ben Woolfolk, belonging to P. Grayham.
Mr. Pices John Deposes: That about four weeks ago, he saw the Prisoner at Mr. Youngs Spring, he enlisted with Gabriel to fight the white people, and promised to meet in three weeks or thereabouts for that purpose - Gabriel observed we must slay them as we go, he the prisoner said he would do so - he was to have the title and Command of Captain -

Propers Ben Deposes - That he went with Gabriel on ^a Friday night to Mr. Youngs, to see Ben Woolfolk whom they found in bed that he was waked ~~up~~ by Sawney and got up - Gabriel gave him money to buy liquor to treat with in Caroline whither he was shortly going - to induce Negroes in Caroline to enlist, he expected that he had six hundred already enlisted, he also told Gabriel that he had then six scythe blades in his room which were to be made into swords, by Gabriel; and was about to bring them out which was prevented by its being inconvenient to Gabriel to carry them with him - That day - fortnight Ben Woolfolk was to meet about ~~Mid~~night at Propers - Tavern as he expected he could arrive there by that time with his men from Caroline - ~~That~~ Gabriel said they would slay the white males from the cradle upwards, but the females of all ages were to be spared - The prisoner very readily agreed that this was the only way - (Condemned and full confession made.)
