

Sir

Friend 11 O'clock A.M

Since I wrote an Officer of Armand, Leger applied for Accutments for the horse we furnish'd him with Sword, belts & but had no postage there was 60 or 70 sent off from Richmond the day before the enemy came in - I believe he went with the other Military stores, by the way of Westham. You was there the time the cross the river, and can give a better account of them perhaps than me. There was no holsters with them so they would be useless if they had them.

I am

Yours &c
