

To the Honorable Speaker, and House of Delegates.

The Petition of Amy Barrett of the County of Princeps. Ann, humbly sheweth that Jonathan Barrett the husband of your Petitioner, acted as sailing Master on board the Brigg Raleigh, Capt. Edward Travis, belonging to this State, when the said Brigg was taken by a British frigate, and carried into New-York, where your petitioners husband was confined with many others of ^{the said} crew, and died with the prevailing disease on board the prison ship, Jersey. — Your Petitioner is now grown old and infirm, and unable to support herself, therefore prays your honorable house to take her situation into consideration, and renew her pension, or grant her such other relief as you in your wisdom shall think proper, and she will, as in duty bound pray &c, &c.
