

To the Honorable the Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Delegates Virginia.

The Petition of the Court of York County,
Humbly Sheweth:

That the laying a Levy sufficient to defray the necessary Expence accruing on the Ordinary Administration of Justice, will (from the particular Situation of this County) be attended with evil Consequences and great difficulty in the Collection. — The Court therefore Humbly prays that a Law may be Enacted enabling them to receive and apply the fines within the County Towards the Payment of the County Expences.

And the Court as in duty Bound shall Ever pray, &c, &c,

Dorsey Perrow of York Co. Ct.

Petition the County of York
County. To the House of Delegates

For

13. Nov. 1770

(rejected)